

Key role statement

Position	Machine Setter
Reports to:	Foreman, Production Manager

Main purpose:

Setting up machines and peripherals for production according to the requirements of production orders to achieve product specifications for quality requirements, performance and supervision of the injection process to eliminate defects.

Key tasks:

- Compliance with health and safety rules at the workplace and company-wide.
 - Guaranteeing the continuity of production with sufficiently high efficiency and quality.
 - First step approval (at the beginning of production) in accordance with the specification.
 - Optimization of the injection process in terms of efficiency and quality.
 - Reduce downtime and changeover times.
 - Preventive maintenance of machines.
 - Continuous cleanliness control in allocated areas.
 - Filling in the production documentation.
-